www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/topic/the-sounds-of-english

Videos and games designed for adults to practise their skills.

www.englishbanana.com

Free podcasts, downloads, books, games and quizzes.

www.listen-to-english.com

More listening practice.

www.eflecturer.blogpost.com

Lots of practice activities and worksheets based on video clips.

www.perfect-english-grammar.com

Grammar practice site.

www.esflow.com

Lots of worksheets for grammar and skills; lots of useful links too.

www.lessonstream.org

Lesson plans and materials linked to YouTube clips.

www.creative-english.org.uk

A site that uses a creative drama-based method which utilises real life situations to teach English to those with few or no language skills. Creative English can also provide training to volunteers from the local community to enable them to teach English to others using these methods.

www.englishmyway.co.uk

This site is for Students with little or no knowledge of English, and who also may not be familiar with the Roman alphabet. It is a very structured 26 week course, though the course can be completed more quickly if the Tutors and Students can find the time. It would appear that the compilers of the site envisage that it will be used by Tutors and Students located within the UK, rather than abroad.
